WARNING ISSUED ON MUNICIPAL ELECTION

UP TO PEOPLE OF ANDERSON TO MAKE CHOICE

NO OUTSIDE HELP

Sheriff Ashley Says When Election Is Over People Can Attend to Their Own Laws

Sheriff Joe M. H. Ashley, sheriff of Anderson county, talked very interestingly yesterday to a reporter for The Intelligencer concerning the approaching municipal election in city of Anderson. Mr. Ashley said that he did not intend taking any active part in the election, nor does he intend lending his assistance to any candidate, but wants to warn the people of Anderson right now that they can look to the next mayor for an enforcement of the city's laws. Mr. Ashley said that during the time he has been in office he has devoted a good part of his time to looking after lawlessness in the city, but has reached the conclusion that this is none of his business and after the next election of city officers he is going to leave it to those officers to enforce their own laws.

The sheriff pointed out that the city has as much right, if it will pass the ordinance, to preserve law and order within the city as he has in a county and he intends seeing to it that the city runs its own affairs.

Mr. Ashley said that it was squarely up to the people to select a man to run the city of mayor and administrator in a manner to meet with the approval of a majority. "If the town wants a wide open man" said Mr. Ashley, "let the voters elect such a man for mayor and I will let him run the city to suit his own notion. On the other hand, if the city wants everything closed up tight, then let the voters select a man willing to carry this out. I will look after Anderson county; let the mayor look after the city of Anderson."

Sheriff Ashley's logic is simply a question of local voters selecting a man for the position to meet with their approval. If they want a man to run the city in a wide-open fashion let him be elected and the sheriff will take no hand and on the other hand, if they want the "blue laws" and like laws to remain in force, let some man be selected that will attend to this.

MILL LEAGUE GOT GOOD START

Opening Games Were Fairly Good Exhibitions Considering Weather—Interest High

The Anderson County Mill League got a flying start yesterday when the first games were played, beginning at 4 o'clock. The contests were between Brogon and Belton at Beuna Vista Park and Cluck and Riverside at the Gluck park. There was great interest manifested and the rooters for both teams at both games outdid themselves in an effort to urge their own teams to victory.

The game between Belton and Brogon at Beuna Vista resulted in the Belton team winning by a score of 14 to 10.

The exhibition was hardly what might be termed a big league affair, for that matter a very creditable exhibition on either side, but it was enjoyable and interesting in some respects. The greatest trouble with the Brogon team was the wildness of the pitcher and his inability to tell where the balls might land. The Belton aggregation put up a better exhibition all around than did the Anderson boys and they deserved to win. For Brogon, Blaque and English composed the battery while Ward and J. Snipes officiated for Belton. The following is the complete line up of the two teams:

SMALL CROWD TO HEAR MR. MULLALLY

Candidate For Office of Governor Spoke From Court House Steps Yesterday Afternoon

Possibly 250 or 300 people heard Judge John Bailey Adger Mullally, candidate for governor, speak from the court house steps here yesterday afternoon. Mr. Mullally commanded the close attention of his hearers as he started and some of the impressions with his arguments impressed upon the minds of the audience. He reiterated his published platform, stressing the fact that he is making the campaign on his own merits and on his fitness to be governor of the State, but also announcing that he favored the policies of Governor Bleasdale. Mr. Mullally says that he claims Anderson as "My Town" and that he is proud of the fact. He confidently expects to be elected governor of the State and expects to make a number of improvements in the methods now in vogue.

SHERIFF STOPPED CHICKEN FIGHTING

PASTIME AROUND PIT WAS RUDELY DISTURBED

NO ARRESTS MADE

Big Main In Progress on County Line Until Arrival of Sheriff and His Deputies

But few Anderson people have ever seen 200 men gathered around a pit in a "battle royal" between blooded game cocks in progress, but that is the sight that was presented to Sheriff Ashley and his deputies when they appeared on the battleground near Dunard's bridge, just inside this county. The sheriff had received information from parties residing in that section to the effect that the fighting was going on and the sheriff was urged to come at once with his deputies and put an end to the game. When the sheriff drew near to a body of men engaged in fighting cocks but when he finally arrived at the scene they all had made good their escape. Evidently there were sentries posted near about and these gave the alarm before the sheriff could swoop down upon the offenders.

Sheriff Ashley said last night that he did not manage to arrest a one of the chicken fighters and all that he had to show for his trip was a 16-gallon keg of beer which the fighters had been working upon before he appeared.

Just after Sheriff Ashley reached the place Sheriff Roark of Pickens also arrived with several of his rural policemen, also bent upon breaking up the pastime. Neither set of officers succeeded in finding any of the participants.

Mr. Ashley said that there were fully 200 men present at the fight and the interest in the outcome of the battle seemed to be running high when he arrived.

The place where he fight was staged was just in the corner of Pickens, Greenville and Anderson counties, and in this way the chicken fanciers were able to escape to the various counties whenever any officer of one county appeared.

ADJUSTED LOSS WITHOUT TROUBLE

School Trustees Agreed That They Would Accept Approximately $8,500 on Burned Building

There was little difficulty experienced in the adjusting of the loss on the burned school building and the school board yesterday announced that the fire insurance adjusters had offered to settle the claims for approximately $8,500. This offer seems to meet with the approval of the school board and will probably be accepted by that body.

There was really but little chance for any misunderstanding to occur in this matter, but quite frequently there are many disagreements with insurance companies concerning claims and it will therefore be a relief to Anderson people to know that this claim will be paid. The sum agreed upon is very equitable since the building cost about $11,000 and it is certain that all of the insurance money will be required to put the building back in first class shape.

CONSCIENCE FUND

The Government Daily Receives Small Contributions. Washington, June 6.—Secretary McAdoo is almost daily receiving small contributions to the government "conscience fund" and, with the close of the fiscal year June 30, it is expected the fund will approximate the annual average of $2,200. Yesterday a conscience-stricken person sent a single paper dollar with the request that it be placed to the fund. The letter was unsigned and bore a Washington city postmark. Contributions from Washingtonians are rare. Vincent Is Home Again. New York, June 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor arrived at New York today on the Astor yacht Noma, after a honeymoon cruise from Bermuda.

MALICIOUS REPORTS ON NEW REGULATIONS

VOTERS DO NOT UNDERSTAND REQUIREMENTS

NOT SO STRINGENT

Some Politicians Would Lead People to Believe Voters Have Been Robbed of Suffrage

Unfortunately there are many people in South Carolina ready and willing to seize upon any opportunity to impose upon the credulity of the public. This has been the case several times since the new rules were adopted at the state democratic convention, held in Columbia on May 20 and some Anderson county politicians have been able to persuade the voters that the convention in Columbia took away from the poor man his right of suffrage.

Not many days ago a man was heard talking to a large crowd in a public place, during the course of which the speaker informed his hearers that unless they had 40 acres of land, two mules, could read and write and could show a number of other qualifications that the could not vote. Unfortunately for these hearers, several of them believed what the man said and even now think that they cannot vote. There were no such regulations introduced into the party at Columbia convention and there will be no such requirements at the polls when the election comes. There has been but little change in the primary and these changes will do nothing to harm any honest voter. The man wanting to vote more than once or to sell his vote and influence to the highest bidder is the man likely to wall the loud-est and longest about the new regulations.

For the benefit of those unfamiliar with the recent changes, the most important parts are condensed and reproduced as follows:

The new rules provide that each applicant for enrollment shall sign his full name in the enrollment book, giving his age, occupation and address. Applicants who cannot write will make a mark which will be witnessed by the secretary or such other person who may then have the enrollment book in charge.

The enrollment books are uniform throughout the state except those used in the city of Charleston, special provision being made in the rules for forms to be used in that city. The county chairman will give notice of the opening of the books, showing the names of the clubs, the boundaries of the club district where the clubs are in cities or towns or adjacent thereto, and names of the secretaries, where the books are to be opened and such other information as the county chairman may see fit to give.

The enrollment books will be kept in the custody of the secretary of each club or at such place as shall be designated by the enrollment committee, said enrollment committee having been appointed on the first Monday in June by the county committee.

The number of enrollment books sent out is 1,376, as follows: Abbeville 28; Aiken 35; Anderson 70; Bamberg 13; Barnwell 40; Beaufort 14; Berkeley 27; Calhoun 13; Charleston (county) 15; Cherokee 30; Chester 25; Chesterfield 24; Clarendon 30; Colleton 35; Darlington 22; Dillon 24; Dorchester 30; Edgefield 22; Fairfield 30; Florence 30; Georgetown 24; Greenville 60; Greenwood 50; Hampton 24; Horry 40; Jasper 15; Kershaw 50; Lancaster 30; Laurens 33; Lee 25; Lexington 60; Marion 20; Marlboro 20; Newberry 50; Oconee 36; Orangeburg 42; Pickens 20; Richland 37; Saluda 40; Spartanburg 100; Sumter 33; Union 25; Williamsburg 33; York 30.

Manning Man Is Firm Believer

Richard S. Hood, chief of the Sumter fire department, was in the city last night enroute to Clemson college where he is going for the commencement exercises. Mr. Hood has a son who is a member of the graduating class at Clemson this year. While in Anderson Mr. Hood said in discussing the political situation that he has never worked in politics knows very little about it, but that he is convinced Mr. Manning will receive nine-tenths of the votes cast in Sumter county for governor.

More Chickens For General Villa

S. J. Hester, of Hester's station was in Anderson yesterday and while here said that he had just shipped another order of fighting cocks to Gen. Villa in Mexico. Mr. Hester sells these chickens to General Villa at an average price of $6 each and the Mexican general says that the chickens he secures from South Carolina to Mexico are known as "Hester's Warhorses" and have a reputation in every pit in the United States. Mr. Hester is proud of his fighting fowls, and he has every right to be.

APPOINTMENT COMES AS GREAT SURPRISE

FEW KNEW THAT DR. W. A. TRIPP CARED FOR OFFICE

NEW TREASURER

Telegram From Columbia Says Brushy Creek Man Has Been Appointed County Officer

While Anderson people regret that C. W. McGee has seen fit to resign as county treasurer, Governor Bleasdale could have selected no man out of the ranks of his supporters in Anderson, more pleasing to the people of the county, to succeed Mr. McGee than Dr. W. A. Tripp of Brushy Creek will be. A telegram was received by The Intelligencer yesterday from Mr. Jno. K. Aull saying that the governor had appointed Dr. Tripp to fill out Mr. McGee's term, which lasts for one more year from next month.

Dr. Tripp is a staunch Bleasdale man and has worked faithfully for the governor in this county and it is presumed that the governor is trying to show his appreciation of Dr. Tripp's efforts by giving him the office for the rest of the term. Opinions vary as to whether Dr. Tripp will accept the office, many pointing out that his extensive practice is worth more to him financially than the office would be and that he will therefore decline. However, others say that he will probably accept and take up the duties of the office on July 1, when Mr. McGee turns over the books of the county.

This gives Miss Wagner first prize in the new championship cup, the old cup having passed to Mrs. Sullivan, winner for 3 years.
